

Free NCLEX-RN® Online Computer Adaptive Testing for ALL Nursing Students!

We know it is hard work preparing for the NCLEX-RN® exam! That is why Platinum Educational Group (the developers of EMSTesting.com) have now developed PlatinumTests.com, an online mobile friendly computer adaptive testing program to help students prepare for their NCLEX-RN® exam online!

You will have free access to PlatinumTests.com our NCLEX-RN® Online Computer Adaptive Testing (that mimics the NCLEX-RN® exam) through December 31, 2016!

Visit us at www.platinumed.com!

Why are we offering Platinum Tests for free?

You will be helping to validate our over 3,000 up-to-date question bank for future nursing students to utilize. We will listen to your feedback, respond if necessary, and make adjustments based on your data. Please note: Providing feedback is optional and you are not obligated to purchase our product once the free trial has ended.

How do I use the free NCLEX-RN® trial?

1. Go to www.platinumtests.com
2. Click the red Students Sign Up Here button
3. Create your free account (select Nursing from the dropdown)
4. Activate account from your email and agree to our Terms & Conditions
5. Click on the red Signup for Platinum Tests link on your dashboard
6. Check the "I am not affiliated with a school" checkbox
7. Select Provider Level: RN
8. Click the green Submit Enrollment button
9. Click the red Adaptive Testing button, then click the New Adaptive Test button.
10. Choose your testing options from dropdowns then click the red Start button.

I would like to provide feedback, how do I do that?

While answering the adaptive testing questions, you will see an envelope icon with Submit Feedback next to it. Click on the link to offer your feedback regarding a question! You can also reach our Customer Support Team by calling 616.818.7877, or go to <https://platinumed.zendesk.com/>.
